SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE

ATHLETIC TRAINING STUDENT WORKSHOP

July 10-July 14, 2011

For High School Students interested in Careers in Athletic Training and Sports Medicine

A HANDS-ON EXPLORATION OF "CADAVER ANATOMY"

- Injury Prevention
- Injury Evaluation
- Management of athletic Injuries
- Lectures
- Demonstrations
- Wrapping/Strapping
- Education
- Professional preparation and career training

The Springfield College Athletic Training Student (ATS) Workshop is a residential program that focuses on the anatomy, injury prevention and care of common lower extremity athletic injuries. With lectures, demonstrations, and practice sessions about athletic injury prevention and care. Presentations on career options are also part of the curriculum. Registration begins in January. Additional information materials and brochures will be available at:

www.spfldcol.edu/specialprograms

Questions?
Contact- Office of Special Programs :
Phone(413) 748-5287
Email: specialprograms@spfldcol.edu

SPRINGFIELD COLLEGE