

Facilities

The baseball team competes at Berry-Allen Field, which features a newly-constructed press box. The complex has served as the site of several NCAA and NEWMAC championship competitions. The dimensions are 330 feet down each line and 400 feet to straightaway center. The annex provides an airy practice site complete with batting tunnels.

2010 Season Preview

The Springfield College baseball team looks to get back to its winning ways in the 2010 season as it returns a handful of starters from a year ago who learned valuable experience.

Anchoring the pitching unit will be seniors Ryan White and Mike Cole, while Steve Forbes returns for his junior campaign after a very strong 2009 season. The Pride also return nearly all of its middle relief and bullpen, led by senior Chris Collard; juniors Mario Piscitelli, Darryl Smith, and Brian Harris; and sophomore Adam DeFelice.

The outfield will once again include John Schmaltz and Joe Kroppa and the duo looks to produce at the plate for Springfield at the top of its lineup. Kroppa batted .303 last season and registered nine doubles and three homers as one of the more explosive Springfield batters, while Schmaltz hit .314 with 33 hits and 16 RBI.

In the infield, Springfield returns the likes of Mike Corletta and Mike Robilotto, while returners Zach Carhart, and Karl Quist will all make contributions for the Pride.

Former Springfield College standout Mark Simeone enters his 14th season as the head baseball coach at his alma mater in 2010. With Simeone calling the signals from the third-base coaching box, the Pride has recorded seven winning seasons, five of which eclipsed the 20-win mark.

There have been many highlights in Simeone's 13 years at the helm. During the 2008 campaign, Simeone's squad powered through the conference tournament before falling in the championship game as the No. 4 seed. In 2006, the Pride finished 8-4 in league play for a second-place regular-season finish in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC).

In 2003 and 2004, Simeone guided the Pride to back-to-back ECAC Tournament semifinal appearances. During the 2004 season, Springfield College reeled off wins in 13 of its last 17 games, and beat the top three ranked teams in New England (Williams, Eastern Connecticut, and Trinity). In the NEWMAC Tournament, the Pride eliminated five-time defending conference champion Wheaton College in the semifinals before falling in the championship game.

Simeone led the Pride to four 20-win campaigns in his first five seasons as head coach. In 2001, he guided the Pride to a 24-14 overall record and a 9-3 mark in NEWMAC play. Springfield College earned a berth in the ECAC Tournament as the second seed. The Pride posted a 27-16 mark (one win shy of the school record) in 1999, and capped the season by winning its first ECAC Division III New England Championship. In 1998, Simeone was named the conference coach of the year after his team posted a 22-14 record and placed first in the Western Division of the Constitution Athletic Conference (CAC) with a 13-1 mark. In the '97 season, his first at the helm, the Pride went 20-14 and registered an 11-game winning streak, its longest in 25 years.

Simeone assisted in coaching future draft choices Hassan Robinson (Astros) and John Raifstanger (Red Sox) when they were freshmen in 1992.

Simeone is a 1982 graduate of Northampton High School, where he was a baseball and football standout. A four-year letterwinner at Springfield College in baseball, he earned his bachelor's degree in health fitness in '87 and his master's degree in physical education in '96, both from Springfield College. Prior to serving as head coach at Springfield College, his coaching experience included two years as an assistant at Amherst ('89), two years as a G.A. at Springfield College ('90-'92), and four years as a head coach at American International College ('93-'96). Simeone's 17-year overall coaching record is 299-303-1 (.496). His 13-year coaching record at Springfield College is 232-225 (.508).

Fall Baseball

Springfield College offers a fall baseball program that provides student-athletes with instruction and allows initial screening for both varsity and sub-varsity team selections. The fall season, which runs approximately five weeks, focuses on simulated-game situations. It allows student-athletes to showcase their skills.

Sub-Varsity Baseball

Sub-varsity baseball offers candidates who show promise the ideal setting to obtain more experience and improve their skills. The sub-varsity team plays a challenging schedule against top junior colleges and other sub-varsity opponents.
