

Facilities

The women's swimming and diving team competes at the Art Linkletter Natatorium in the Physical Education Complex. The facility includes a six-lane, 50-meter pool in addition to a diving area which features two one-meter cheese boards and a three-meter tower containing two cheese boards. The site has been the host of regional and national championships, also serving as the training grounds for Olympic competitors.

2009-10 Season Preview

After finishing 12th at the NCAA Championships a year ago and winning its ninth-straight conference title, the 2009-10 Springfield College women's swimming and diving team is poised to continue its success this season. Despite the loss of three-time NEWMAC Swimmer of the Year Moira Price, the Pride return six national participants from last seasons's squad. NEWMAC Rookie of the Year Kaitlin Reilly joined classmates Jaelyn Van Waalwijk and Caroline Kosciusko at nationals, while Meg Cooney returns after tremendous showings at the NCAA and NEWMAC Championships. Divers Meghan Kijanka and Michelle Reggio will anchor the Pride's diving corps. Aimee Doe and Courtney Keefe each met national qualifying standards last season and hope to reach the national meet this upcoming season. Janella Cuyler, Paige Rhodes, and Molly Potter appear ready to make an impact as freshmen, while transfer Kerry Lynch looks to make a difference in her first year at Springfield.

Head Coach John Taffe, who enters his 21st year at Springfield College, will begin this season as a six-time NEWMAC Coach of the Year. Taffe believes that this year's team possesses the appropriate mix of experience, depth, and youth.

Head diving coach Peter Avdoulos enters his 25th season at Springfield College since graduating from the College in 1985. Avdoulos is a four-time NCAA Division III Women's Coach of the Year. He is also a five-time NEWMAC Coach of the Year, as Avdoulos has coached three separate National Champions

Head Swimming Coach John Taffe

John Taffe enters his 21st season as the head coach of the men's and women's swimming teams at Springfield College. He also serves as an assistant professor of physical education.

Under Taffe's leadership, the Pride is regarded as one of the best collegiate swimming and diving programs in Division III. The Springfield women's team won its ninth consecutive New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) Championship in 2009, and finished 12th at the NCAA Division III Championships, its highest finish in 10 years. Eleven Pride squads have finished among the top 20 teams in Division III over the past 13 years. The 2005 men's team placed ninth, the highest ever recorded by a Springfield squad at the NCAA Division III Championships.

Taffe has coached countless NCAA All-Americans and conference champions at Springfield College. He has been both the NEWMAC Coach of the Year twice, and received NEWMAC Women's Coach of the Year honors six times, most recently in 2008. Taffe served as the head coach for the Netherlands-Antilles squad at the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney, Australia, coaching Springfield All-American Howard Hinds, a 2000 graduate.

Taffe attended the University of Rhode Island, where he was a five-time New England swimming champion as well as a two-time All-New England water polo selection for the Rams. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from URI in 1985 and his master's degree in education from East Carolina in 1988.

Head Diving Coach Peter Avdoulos

Entering his 25th year as the diving coach at his alma mater, Peter Avdoulos '85 is regarded as one of the top diving coaches in the nation. Avdoulos was a standout diver as an undergraduate and received the Charles Batterman Award as the top New England performer over a four-year period.

Avdoulos has coached numerous All-New England and All-American divers, including All-American Lindsay Moore, the Division III Women's Diver of the Year in 2002. On the men's side, Avdoulos coached All-American Mike Shaw, the first Springfield male diver to win a national title as he was named the 2005 NCAA Division III National Diver of the Year.

In 2009, Avdoulos helped the duo of Michelle Reggio and Meghan Kijanka have tremendous showings at the NCAA Championships as each earned All-America honors on the one and three-meter boards. The 2008 season was a highlight for the Pride, as Springfield was one of just two schools in the country to have at least three student-athletes represented at nationals.

Avdoulos has been the NCAA Division III Women's Diving Coach of the Year four times in the last decade and the NCAA Division III Men's Diving Coach of the Year twice in the last six years. He was named the NEWMAC Men's and Women's Diving Coach of the Year for the 2002-2003 season. He was also named the Men's Coach of the Year in 2005, 2006, 2008, and 2009.
