Family Information/Household Verification — ALL STUDENTS MUST COMPLETE

For dependent students, list all the people that your parent(s) will support between July 1, 2012 and June 30, 2013.

- Include yourself, your parent(s), your parent(s)' other dependent children if they provide more than half of their support, and other people only if they receive more than half of their support from your parent(s).
- Note: If your biological/adoptive parents are divorced/separated, you should be providing information on the parent with whom you live (custodial parent). If your custodial parent has remarried, we need your stepparent's information as well. In this situation, the proper marital status of your parent is "married".

For independent students (using the federal financial aid definition of an independent student), please include yourself, your spouse if married at the time of filing your Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), and any other family members (children, etc.) for whom you provide more than half of their support.

Provide the name of the college for family members who will be enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program AT LEAST HALF-TIME during the 2012-2013 academic year. Please complete all areas. Remember, parents attending college are not counted in the total number of family members in college.
