Registration Instructions

IMPORTANT NOTE:

- Students are responsible for their registration and following the academic regulations of the College. When in doubt, students are advised to check with their academic advisor, Academic Advising Office or the Department Chair.
- Students taking courses on a Pass/Fail basis must have approval for this action at the time of registration or during add/drop week. Pass/Fail requests must be approved by the advisor.
- Applications must be presented in person at the Registrar's Office for all Courses by Arrangement, Community Service courses, PHED 281, PEAC 194 and designated Research courses. (RSCH 141, 626, 618). Confirmation of registration can be viewed via PrideNET after early registration process takes place.
- ADD / DROP PERIOD

Courses may be added to existing registrations only during the first five class days of each semester. Courses may be dropped through the end of the tenth day after classes begin. Dropped courses will not appear on the academic record. After January 24, 2012, drop must be done at the Office of the Registrar.

- After the add / drop period, students may withdraw from a course and a grade of "W" will appear on the academic record but will not affect the semester and cumulative grade point average. All withdrawals must be done in person at the Office of the Registrar.

Withdrawals will not be accepted after the twelfth week of the semester.

- Students who do not attend a course for which they are registered, and do not officially drop or withdraw from the course may receive a grade of "F" for that course or section.
- Students who attend a course or section for which they are NOT officially registered, will not receive credit for their work.
- Consult the Business Office publication Fiscal Facts for information on tuition refunds. Courses not officially dropped will be billed at the normal tuition rates. The Business Office makes every effort to make Fiscal Facts available to each student; if you have not received a copy, contact the Business Office
- A LATE REGISTRATION FEE OF $25.00 WILL BE CHARGED TO STUDENTS REGISTERING FOR SPRING SEMESTER AFTER JANUARY 17, 2012.

The Spring 2012
